ABOUT

Ardaas Ltd stands as a distinguished UK-registered exporter of premium furnishings and antiques, boasting an unparalleled network spanning 46+ prestigious auction houses and antique dealers across the United Kingdom. Our reach extends to exclusive in-store collections and curated pop-up antique markets, ensuring access to the finest pieces in the realm of historical decor.

Our esteemed team comprises seasoned military personnel and accomplished interior decorators, whose expertise has graced museums, residential estates, corporate offices, and distinguished Army Messes. This unique blend of precision and aesthetic sensibility allows us to identify cost-effective, one-of-a-kind pieces that cater to the exacting standards of high-end designers and discerning interior decorators.

At the helm of our operations stands a cadre of dedicated military veterans, whose unwavering commitment to authenticity and meticulous attention to detail ensures unparalleled reliability and clockwork precision in every aspect of our service. Our modus operandi revolves around a sophisticated scouting process, identifying premium items at auctions and shops across the UK. These carefully selected pieces feature in our exclusive monthly catalogue, complete with transparent pricing that includes door-to-door delivery and comprehensive insurance. Our streamlined process requires a 50% commitment fee, payable a minimum of three days prior to scheduled auctions. We pride ourselves on our hassle-free service, diligently sourcing specific items to meet our clients' unique requirements. In the rare event that an item exceeds its estimated price, we offer a full refund without deductions, processed within two business days of the auction date, underscoring our commitment to customer satisfaction and financial transparency.

For items subject to import duties in India, our clients benefit from our extensive experience in navigating international regulations, ensuring a seamless and hassle-free acquisition process. We also search and deliver specific items on the requests of our customers provided the requests are compliant with international laws and regulations.
